17th September 2024

Dear Parents / Carers

Celebration of Languages Week: Monday 23rd – Friday 27th September 2024

Free Mufti Day: Friday 27th September 2024

Our annual celebration of languages spoken within our school will take place between the above mentioned dates when, as a whole school, we will be sampling a variety of the 35+ different languages spoken by some of our pupils and learning about the various cultures of these countries.

Throughout the week all year groups will take part different activities relating to their chosen country / culture including cooking and food tasting. If your child has any food allergies please ensure that you advise your Class Teacher of these by no later than Wednesday 25th September 2024 of these.

Yrs 1 – 6 will also take part in a pupil based assembly on Friday the 27th at which they will share with their peers what they have learnt about their year groups chosen language / country / culture.

To mark the end of the week, we will hold a special free whole school (including Nursery and Reception) national costume mufti day on Friday 27th September. Only traditional national / regional or folk costumes such as saris, mundus, shalwar kameez, kilts, Irish country dancing outfits, barong tagalog, mestiza, kimono etc., will be acceptable.

If this is not possible, your child may wear something in the 'colours' of their country. Please note: no football kits or joke hats / similar please.

Yours sincerely

Mrs N Duggan
