Learning our faith, living our faith, Loving our faith

3rd December 2025

Dear Parents / Carers

We will be celebrating the Icelandic Christmas of 'Jólabókaflóð' in school on:

Monday 15th December 2025.

This Icelandic tradition of giving books as Christmas gifts on Christmas Eve, followed by a cozy evening of reading translates to 'Christmas Book Flood'. The celebration is a time for families to exchange books and spend time together reading.

On this day children are asked to bring in their favourite book and come into school in pyjamas – these don't have to be Christmas ones!

They may also bring slippers in with them in a bag to change into whilst inside the school building, along with a cuddly toy or pillow if they so wish.

During the day children will have the opportunity to 'get cosy' with their books and spend some lovely time reading for pleasure and sharing their favourite books with their class.

We look forward to another wonderful learning opportunity for all the children.
